1.2. Academic Unit Involved in the Delivery of the Programme

The Minor Programme in Accounting is to be offered by the Accounting programme and administered under the Faculty of Business and Management.

1.3. Programme Aims, Objectives and Intended Learning Outcomes

The Minor Programme in Accounting aims to provide opportunities for students to pursue their interest in accounting and to apply the knowledge in the work place of their major field of studies. The Minor Programme in Accounting is structured firstly to provide students with a foundation of knowledge and techniques in accounting in order to become creative problem solvers, critical thinkers and team leaders in managing and tackling real world accounting problems and issues related to their major fields of study; and secondly to promote lifelong learning.

Table 1 outlines the Programme Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs) of the Minor Programme in Accounting and Table 2 delineates the alignment of its PILOs with the Graduate Attributes (GAs) of BNBU.

Table 1: Programme Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs)

Upon successful completion of the Minor Programme in Accounting, students should be able to:
PILO 1	Acquire broad-based knowledge and concepts about the functions and roles of business and society to successfully manage a business;
PILO 2	Explain the theories and principles of accounting-related issues and apply these professional knowledge and skills to transactions in the changing business environments and in professional practice;
PILO 3	Integrate knowledge and skills in multiple sets of business-related disciplines, with the aim of solving diverse real-life problems, based on the analytical and problem-solving skills they have developed.
